Madam President,

Jordan would like to welcome ^{H.E.} Mr. Marty Natalegawa and the Indonesian delegation to the thirteenth session of the UPR, and to thank them for the interesting presentation of the national report.

Jordan wishes to commend Indonesia for its sincere and ongoing efforts to further promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms. We are particularly encouraged not only by the establishment of the National Human Rights Commission of Indonesia, but also for equipping it with an enhanced mandate that includes carrying out analysis; awareness-raising and training activities; receiving and investigating individual complaints; and visiting places of detention.

In addition, Indonesia's efforts to strengthen the institutional framework are highly appreciated. These efforts included the establishment of the Commission on the Elimination of Violence Against Women and the National Commission for Children's Protection, as well as the Ombudsman of the Republic of Indonesia, and the National Police Commission. We hope that Indonesia will continue to render its support to these bodies so that they can discharge their mandates in the most effective manner.

Finally, we wish to make the following recommendations to Indonesia:-

1. To continue developing the institutional framework with respect to the promotion and protection of human rights;
2. To continue its policies on improving the rights of the child.

I thank you
