Ambassador Rajab Sukayr

Mr. President,

Jordan would like to welcome Mr. [redacted] and the delegation of Luxembourg to the Fifteenth session of the UPR, and to thank them for the interesting presentation of the national report.

Jordan wishes to commend Luxembourg for its sincere and ongoing efforts to further promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms. We are particularly encouraged by the ratification of a number of international human rights conventions such as the convention on the rights of Persons with disabilities, and its Optional Protocol. Jordan also commends Luxembourg for the new legislation that was brought in line with the provisions of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

In addition, Luxembourg's efforts to strengthen its legislations are highly appreciated. These efforts included the amendments of the Act on Freedom of expression, the new Act on Assistance for Children and Families, and the three new laws that have been adopted to complete the legislative instruments to combat human trafficking.

Finally, we wish to make the following recommendations to Luxembourg:-

1. To continue its policies on improving the rights of the child.
2. To continue improving the human rights for women.

I thank you
