Thank you Mr. President.

My delegation welcomes the delegation of Azerbaijan, led by -----, coming from a country of rich cultural heritage. We commend the country for the progress made in last four and half years in the promotion and protection of human rights of its citizens. We are happy to note that the country has become a party to CRPD. We find that the National Action Program of the country reveals the willingness of the government to work with utmost sincerity for the implementation of the recommendations accepted during its first cycle of review through a systematic approach.
