

Statement by Mr. Kyaw Moe Tun
Chargé d'affaires a.i.
Permanent Mission of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar
At the UPR Working Group Session on China
22 October 2013, Geneva

Mr. President,

My Delegation warmly welcomes the Chinese Delegation led by..... and we would like to commend them for the national report and comprehensive presentation.

Mr. President,

We congratulate the great achievements made by China in implementing the Millennium Development Goals.

We note with appreciation that the beginning in late 2008, China mobilized a new round of judicial reform, of which the strengthening of human rights safeguards was an important goal. We are pleased to note that, currently, a total of 60 tasks of the judicial reform have already been basically achieved, and are being embodied in the revision and improvement of related legislation.

Mr. President,

My Delegation would like to make the following recommendations for the considerations:

- To strengthen institutional guarantees for the legitimate rights and interests of news agencies and journalists.
- To continue to use the platform of All-China Federation of Trade Unions to safeguard the rights of employees to get employed, paid and social security.

We wish China all the success.

I thank you, Mr. President.
