

105

Intervention of Romania on the UPR of China

Thank you Mr. President,

We thank the delegation of China for presenting the very rich update on the situation of human rights in China since the last UPR.

We took note of the important progress in areas such as combating the trafficking in human beings and ensuring the right to education.

We recommend China to continue to adopt appropriate measures in combating the trafficking of human beings.