

Universal Periodic Review of Chile

28 January 2014

Intervention by the delegation of Liechtenstein

---

Liechtenstein welcomes the distinguished delegation of Chile and wishes to thank for the valuable information provided in the introductory statement as well as in the national report.

We acknowledge the efforts of the Government of Chile to overcome all forms of discrimination against women and to strengthen the promotion of women's rights, i.a. through the Equal Opportunities Plan 2011-2020, and through the National Plan of Action to Combat Domestic Violence.

Liechtenstein recommends that Chile step up its efforts to combat domestic violence, including in preventive and awareness-raising measures and assistance for victims of domestic violence.

Regarding children and young people, Chile has a comprehensive protection system in place. We note, however, that corporal punishment of children remains lawful in the home and in alternative care settings. Liechtenstein therefore recommends that Chile explicitly prohibit corporal punishment of children in the home and in all alternative care settings.

Liechtenstein acknowledges Chile's commitment to international justice. In this regard, Liechtenstein recommends that Chile ratify the Kampala amendments to the Rome Statute, if possible with a view to contributing to the activation of the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court over the crime of aggression at the beginning of 2017.
