

Statement of the Eritrean Delegation on the UPR process of the Arab Republic of Egypt 05 November 2014 Geneva.

Thank you Mr. President,

Eritrea warmly welcomes the Delegation of the Sisterly African Country, Egypt, lead by His Excellencyand thanks him for the comprehensive report and presentation. The report indicates the pure commitment of the Republic of Egypt in discharging its national and international obligations. We note with satisfaction the ongoing efforts of the Government in promoting and protecting Human Rights from the report and today's discussion.

My delegation values the UPR as one of the best mechanisms to address challenges of human rights and it is along this conviction that we always support the process.

My delegation would also like to commend the efforts of the delegation to address the concerns of the delegates from the floor.

Mr. President,

I would like to recommend the Delegation of Arab Republic of Egypt the following with the hope that the delegation will take onboard those recommendations.

1. Continuing its efforts to ensure the realization of the right to education for all, with a special emphasis on the promotion of the right to education for women.
2. To maintain its efforts aimed at the enjoyment of human rights by persons with disabilities, including through providing the National Council for Disabilities with the necessary resources and training for its staff.

In conclusion, my delegation wishes the delegation of Egypt every success in the process.

I thank you Mr. President.
