UPR Working Group – 20th Session
Statement of the Delegation of the Sudan
Review of Madagascar
Monday, 3 November 2014

Mr. President,

Sudan welcomes the distinguished delegation of Madagascar and thanks the honorable head of the Delegation for the excellent and informative presentation of the national report.

The national report reflects the great efforts undertaken by Madagascar, to further improve the situation of human rights in the country. Sudan views with satisfaction the adoption of the new Constitution 2010 and noted the measures undertaken to protect the health of women and children furthermore the interim plan for education 2013-2015 to improve access to education without discrimination and the establishment of the national child protection committee.

Mr. President,

Sudan would like to recommend to the government of Madagascar the following:

1. To continue its efforts to adopt legislations to combat trafficking and protection of women's rights in particular nationality and gender equality.
2. To increase public awareness of human rights.

Thank you, Mr. president
