The Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia on the Universal Periodic Review of the State of Kuwait

Ethiopia welcomes the delegation of the State of Kuwait. We thank the delegation for the comprehensive national report and constructive engagement with the council. We commend Kuwait for implementing significant number of recommendations from the first UPR cycle.

We welcome the measures taken by Kuwait to protect the rights of expatriate and domestic workers as per the recommendations of the Council. In this regard we recommend Kuwaiti to include human rights training to law enforcement organs and personnel's of public sector on the rights of migrant and domestic workers.

We commend the establishment of early prevention centre for early detection of disabilities and the specialized services for children with disabilities in Kuwait. We further note with satisfaction the vocational and skill training undertaken by the Government to self-help Persons with Disabilities. We recommend Kuwait to introduce further measures to strengthen the employment opportunities and self-reliance options for Persons with Disabilities.

Finally, we wish all the best to the delegation of Kuwait in its engagement with the Human Rights Council.
