

UPR Second Cycle: Turkey

Ahmed Kasim

Date: 27th January 2015

Djibouti Statement

The Republic of Djibouti wishes to underline the comprehensive reform process Turkey has undertaken aimed at amending the legal framework on human rights, the rule of law and democracy in line with international principles and standards.

We particularly laud the efforts the government has deployed to adopt and implement the six "Judicial Reforms Package" since the first cycle of UPR.

In view of those significant achievements and to encourage Turkey to further enhance its efforts, Djibouti would like to make the following recommendations:

- 1) To vigorously pursue reforms towards redressing gender inequalities in secondary schools
- 2) To continue providing generous support to the Syrian refugees in Turkey.

Finally, the Republic of Djibouti wishes Turkey all the best in its Endeavour to promote and protect human rights in its country.
