

Statement by Turkmenistan 22nd session of the WG on UPR Review of Belarus (4 May 2015)

(Time for speaker: 1 minute 15 seconds)

Thank you Mister President,

At the outset Turkmenistan warmly welcomes the high level delegation of the Republic of Belarus to this session of UPR Working Group and thanks H.E. _____, _____ for the comprehensive update.

Turkmenistan welcomes that the Government of Belarus has made a number of amendments to the national legislation with a view to further strengthening democratic reforms and the formation of civil society, democratizing State and administrative bodies, ensuring a better balance of power between the three branches of government and strengthening the role and influence of political parties in implementing socioeconomic, public and political reforms and renewing and modernizing the country.

Further Turkmenistan recommends:

- to observe all human rights principles, international conventions and raise awareness among population regarding Human Rights Values;
- to continue the practice of implementing programs aimed at further improving the welfare of the population.

Thank you Mister President.