

23rd Session of the UPR Working Group

Review of Austria

Statement by Rwanda delivered by Moses Rugema

Thank you Mr. President.

- Rwanda welcomes the delegation of Austria and thanks them for the presentation of their national report.
- We note the progress registered in aligning national legislation with Austria's international obligations.
- We call on Austria to translate these positive steps into practical measures to combat among others issues discrimination in all its forms.

Rwanda has the following recommendations:

- Increase measures to combat discrimination in all forms.
- Ensure that law enforcement officials conduct their duties in line with Austria's international obligations particularly in relation to migrants, asylum seekers and minorities.

We wish Austria every success in the implementation of the recommendations accepted at this UPR.

I thank you
