Statement by Myanmar Delegation

24th session of the UPR Working Group

18 January 2016

Mr. President,

My delegation warmly welcomes the delegation of Namibia and we thank them for the national report and comprehensive presentation.

We congratulate the significant achievements made by Namibia in implementing the recommendations received from the first cycles of UPR.

We are delighted to note that Namibia has launched the National Human Rights Action Plan for the period 2015-19. We welcome the measures taken to ensure the right to education for all children including the adoption of a series of policies to create all-inclusive education system and the abolishment of the compulsory financial parental contribution to the School Development Fund to make primary education more accessible.

My delegation would like to recommend that Namibia continues its efforts to ensure the right to education for all people.

Finally, Mr. President, we wish Namibia a successful UPR.

I thank you, Mr. President.
