

Statement by the Islamic Republic of Iran
Twenty-fourth session of the UPR Working Group
Review of Singapore

27 January 2016

Mr. President,

We would like to welcome the delegation of Singapore and congratulates it for well prepared and comprehensive national report.

My delegation appreciate Singapore for positive development in the area of human rights, notably its valuable efforts in education, public health and taking care of the elderly since the first UPR.

We would like to make the following recommendations to Singapore:

- 1.To continue its strive to build an inclusive society where persons with disabilities are given every opportunity to become integral and contributing members,
- 2.To strengthen its efforts for protecting victims of trafficking in persons and organize awareness raising programs in favor of public on issues related to combating human trafficking.

Thank you, Mr. President.
