Statement by Myanmar Delegation

24th session of the UPR Working Group

25 January 2015

Mr. President,

My delegation warmly welcomes the delegation of Solomon Islands and commends them for the comprehensive report and updated information on its endeavors to promote and protect human rights.

In the UPR report of the Solomon Islands, we are delighted to take note of the adoption of a ten-year National Development Strategy (NDS) 2011-2020, which reflects Solomon Islands' commitment to develop reform process in various sectors, including the poverty alleviation, health, education and climate change. We also take note of the Climate Change Policy 2012-2017 to be adopted by the Solomon Islands to address climate change adaptation, mitigation and disaster risk management.

My delegation would like to recommend that the Solomon Islands further strengthen the necessary measures to address climate change, environmental degradation and disaster management.

I thank you, Mr. President.
